High School Guiding Questions for Breakout Groups

- 1.) After watching the video showing examples of collaborative and flexible learning spaces, how do such innovative design elements support our mission to prepare students for college, the world of work, to own their own business, or enter the military?
- 2.) Describe the learning environment that allows students to collaborate and practice critical thinking.
- 3.) Columbus is a diverse and dynamic government hub; home to cutting edge technology and medical research; Fortune 500 Business and Industry; some of the nation's top colleges and universities and a vibrant arts community. Thinking about all that Columbus has to offer, how might space design help to foster increased partnerships with our community?
- 4.) Looking at the TRIANGLE BELOW and also remembering that we can only have 2 of the 3 elements, which two elements most resonate with you.
 - a. Smaller schools with robust programming increase operational costs
 - b. Robust programming operating at lower costs does not occur in smaller schools
 - c. Smaller schools operating at lower costs limit the ability for robust programming
